

Local Listener Loses But Wins

Bill Wright Jr., of 18328 Roslin Ave., Torrance, lost his chance of winning a free record album when he failed to stump KBIG disc jockey

Joe Uigara with a favorite tongue-twister. But by losing he did win an album for the Exceptional Children's Foundation at 2225 W. Adams Blvd., Los Angeles. On his daily 7 to 10 a.m. broadcast over the Catalina

Station, Niagara invites listeners to send him tongue-twisters which he reads at top speed three times. If he stumbles, the listener wins the album. If he succeeds, a charitable institution gets it. Title of the contest, naturally, is "Niagara Falls."
